

Christina Grimmie, Find Me

I know something's bound to change
And I know I have been to blame
Watching the way this era of madness won't come and spread no shame
'Cause I've been waiting watching and praying for you to go insane... I've Been

Hold me now and come on out and find me 'cause I've been waiting my turn
Pressure's on and now your heart is beating
So the sound of my name and I say
Find me
Find me
Come on out and find me
Find me
Find me
Pressure's on now
Don't defy it burning the thought of calling back your name
Maybe it's not different and because I see some play you did
Forget the footsteps
Forward and take one back where they just secure
Hey
So now you're crying, Open the mind and to hide what you're looking for

Deceitful smile
Ohh you don't want it to get you, yeah, anywhere
Anymore...
Any- MORE...
ANY- MORE...

Hold me now and come on out and find me 'cause I've been waiting my turn
Pressure's on and now your heart is beating
So the sound of my name, Come on out and find me
