

Christina Grimmie, My Anthem

Whoa whoa whoa
Here is my new song
And it didn't take long
It's not a cover
I hope you won't bother
It's not karaoke
I'm keeping it low key
Well, I'm no psychic
But I hope that you like it
Here it goes now don't make me nervous
'Cause all I got's a few random versus
I hope it gets you under the surface
I tried my best 'cause you really deserve it

Ooo, I wanna live for the moments
That are gone before we're thinking about them
I'm singing this because we'd be nothing without them
And this is my anthem, yea
Ooo, I wanna live for the feelings
That could live in this life's a meaning
I'm singing this because we'd be nothing without them
And this is my anthem, yea

Maybe it's turkey
This song makes me happy
You sing it with me
Possibly maybe
If you think it's cheesy
Then you're singing off key
It won't matter to me
Because I'm feeling sunny
So here it goes now don't you get nervous
'Cause all we got is a few random versus
I know it will get you under the surface
It can't go wrong 'cause nobody's perfect

Ooo, I wanna live for the moments
That are gone before we're thinking about them
I'm singing this because we'd be nothing without them
And this is my anthem, yea
Ooo, I wanna live for the feelings
