

Christina Milian, Someday One Day

Day to day and each night I pray
That there's someone out there that's gonna melt my heart away
And take me to another place
From the lonlieness that's driving me insane
I get so cold summer feels like the winter
When I'm at home, all alone I just cry
I wish that I could just lie like I'm happy
But I can't hide this hurt inside

[CHORUS:]

But I'll tell you someday I'm gonna find
A guy that's gonna change my life
And I tell you one day just wait and see
True love is waiting out there for me

[VERSE 2:]

I'm like an open book just trying to turn the page
Feels like I'm trapped in a maze trying to find my way
Oh my heart's yearning for someone to call my own
And I don't wanna sing another sad love song again
I get so cold summer feels like the winter
When I'm at home, all alone I just cry
I wish that I could just lie like I'm happy
But I can't hide this hurt inside

[CHORUS 2x]

Take me away, away
Far away, away
Take me away
So far away, away

[CHORUS]
