

Christopher Cross, Never Stop Believing

Every night in my window
I see pictures of
The day we met
I keep wishing on the falling stars
To forget you but
It hasn't happened yet
And I still remember when you walked away
It was more than my heart could believe
Careless wind blew the smell of your perfume away
But the touch of you, it never leaves
So I'll never stop believing
Someday your love is coming back to me
No, I'll never stop believing
Someday that you'll be coming back to me
Everybody in my life
They say forget that girl
She's gone for good
How can I explain this heart
It just keeps hanging on
'Cause something says it should
Oh, I go on remembering how good we were
The sweetest days I'll ever know
This careless boy, somehow he let you get away
But the touch of you, he'll never let it go
So I'll never stop believing
Someday your love is coming back to me
No, I'll never stop believing
Someday that you'll be coming back to me

So I'll never stop believing
Someday your love is coming back to me
Time and time again I see
Just how much she meant to me
Oh, a love like that is meant to be
She's got to come back, she's got to come back
And I still remember when you walked away
It was more than my heart could believe
Careless wind blew the smell of your perfume away
But the touch of you, it never leaves
And I go on remembering how good we were
The sweetest days I'll ever know
This careless boy, somehow he let you get away
But the touch of you, he'll never let it go
So I'll never stop believing
Someday your love is coming back to me
No, I'll never stop believing
Someday that you'll be coming back to me
So I'll never stop believing
Someday your love is coming back to me
No, I'll never stop believing
Someday that you'll be coming back to me
So I'll never stop believing
Someday your love is coming back to me
No, I'll never stop believing
Someday that you'll be coming back to me
