

Chumbawamba, Commercial Break

Come on baby, let's do the revolution
6 for the record, 7 for the T-shirt
A picture of the band
And a ticket to the Promised Land
Watching all the bouncers
Systematically beating up the dancers
To the rhythm of a pocket of change
Here's the group with all the answers
Vote for the Party and
Keep your mouth shut!
Same chains of command
All the power taken out of our hands
Politics pays the piper
In this Company-Land
Come on baby, let's do the revolution
They say we'll all be equal
When they take control
Vote for the Party and
Wallow in our rock and roll
Roadie! My guitar!
