

Church, I am a rock

A winters day, in a deep and dark December I am alone, gazing from my window into the streets be