[[verse 1]]

hey, hey
and they say
im a bitch, i'ma hoe,

im a freak
i got a different girl everyday of the week you too smart you'd be a dummy to believe that stuff that you heard that they say about me they say that im this they say that im that but all of its fiction
none of its facts
but you dont be hearin it about your lover you let it go in one ear and out the other now he say she say they say i heard it be fake we cant let it get on our nerves she miserable
she just want you to be like her misery needs company so dont listen to that vine of grapes they're nuthin but liars hatin and i bet
they wouldnt mind tradin places with you by my side in my mercedes

[[chorus]]

mo money mo' problems
life of a legend

haters throw salt like rice at a weddin so what thats your cousin
that dont mean nuthin her like missin is a type of affection you get you just blind to the facts see the lies just as obvious as cries for attention yield to the blindness to apply your suspicion but listen

say you love me
gotta trust me
why you stress this high school mess break up never they just jealous
drama for your mother
mean mug from your brother im that author of the book they can judge by the cover yes i,i been to jail yeah, im grindin for real im positive at talkin negative pimp they hate to see you doin better than them so
