

Cibo Matto, King Of Silence

I can take your pain away if you tear down your fortress of memory
I can take your pain away, you don't always need to be strong
I can take your pain away, I know we wear different shoes
I can take your pain away, barefoot we will tear the truth
You are the king of silence... You don't need one word to talk to me
All I know is we have sympathy
Close your eyes and lean your head on me
I can take your pain away if you find a remedy in me
I can take your pain away, you can take as much as you want from me
I can take your pain away, we have a distance between us
I can take your pain away, every time we can find the clue
