

Cigar, Weight Of The World

You're the only one looking out for you
Everyone else is looking for second chances

After all the things that you go through
They want to pawn off all their problems
They can't solve on you

I don't want to feel the weight of the world

There's too much pressure but there's time
To find a better way to speak my mind
Than complaining and whining
It's your pressure you're defining

Can't rely on all those people
To do the same for you
Independence makes you strong
S willingness to carry on
But you don't even try

Try and try to get things right
But it's a cause that's been lost from the start
I don't want to feel the weight of the world

I won't know what to think
When the quicksand around us
Sinks everything that's been standing in our way

I don't know if we'll succeed
In satisfying everyone's needs
'Cause clearly there's not enough hours in the day
Just to wake up
No longer enough to tackle
Every day so I won't

You've got it rough
And all you can do is sit around
And complain well don't

I don't want to feel the weight of the world
