

Cindy Alexander, Born Again Virgin

Hey it's nice to meet you
I'm a born again virgin
I don't mean to scare you
I just wanted to be open
I think there's a reason that you moved to California
You don't need a sister
But a lover who adores ya
Maybe we could touch
Maybe we could think about it
Maybe I could show you
There's another way

CHORUS:

All this time
I have been terrified
I'd go through life
and never be satisfied
Walk this world with no one to give it to
If this is life...
I want you in my living room

Hey it's nice to know you
You're my broken heart surgeon
I've been bleeding for you and my situation's urgent
Maybe you can heal me
Maybe we can talk about it
Maybe you can show me
There's another way

REPEAT CHORUS

breakdown chorus

REPEAT CHORUS over..

Hey it's nice to meet you
I'm a born again virgin
