

Cindy Morgan, Gravity

I was looking for a fantasy sometimes reality's just not what you're looking for and then the gravity pulls to commematy high on catastrophe and i just couldnt see the forest for a me but there is a gravity happening in spite of you and me bringing us close
double the dose
life is a scary thing promise a diamond ring yeah anything you need you're standing still in the poran ring forget your name but anywhere or maybe i'll call you sometime why do we play these games isn't there any shame to our unsalvaged pain but eyes that see everything happening in spite of you and me
bringing us close
double the dose
