

Cinemon, Nobody's Gonna Put Out The Fire

you're not the same so don't act like you could know any better this is my game and my rules i figure out there's no right and no wrong do what i want nobody's gonna put out the fire not when it took so much to ignite what we came for 's just a little bit further close enough to reach out and touch all wee need is little bit of love i made a promise, now i'll make you mine eating me up bit by bit not much is left not giving up keep what i've got
