

Circa Survive, Holding Someone's Hair Back

don't say a word don't be grateful if I ever made you laugh let's make believe what's at stake here's more than just your reputation she's got the photos, but no recollection he's got the motive, but no transportation you'll be carving this across my chest are you cutting me out now after crawling inside

turn away your head
what do I deserve, what do I deserve, instead it's a surprise you haven't caught on yet it's nothing personal, you're an embarrassment don't cut me out

we're offering nothing but the best accommodations just tell us who you are, just tell us who you are

it's a surprise you haven't caught on yet
