

Circa Survive, In Fear And Faith can we last through the winter the water's starting to freeze the only one who remembers taking the wrong step falling in front of me this body's already aging these nights are already long and if I last through the winter I swear to you now, I won't call congratulations, go home now will we last through the winter will we make it to see I never wanted a partner and I never loved you now you are free to leave this heart is already frozen I can't remember to thaw and if I last through the winter I swear to you now, I won't call

it's too late it's too late they won't let go
I've followed five foot steps through that open door, open door
they won't let go

it must be buried under the heart that makes this place persistent you'll find in time, the gate's been open and I've been wondering, if you'd been real with us it's too late...

they won't let go
they won't let go

start stop and go you've been dying for, you've been dying for
