

Circleslide, Walking On The Waves

Tell me tell me tell me that you'll never leave
Sing it to my heart lord, help me to believe
Like Peter in the storm I sink into the sea
I look into your eyes, I realize there's no where else I'd rather be

It's the sweetest sound
When you call out loud
And your voice drowns out the rain
Like a peaceful song
When the storm rages on
And I'm walking on the waves

Thunder clouds and lightning flashing in the sky
All my fears and sorrows crashing like the tide
Sing it to my spirit soothe my troubled mind
I'm reaching for your hand, I understand that truer love I'll never find

When I hear you call my name
What a glorious melody
Such a lovely song, such a lovely song

Like a sinking man I found it hard to breathe
Sing it to soul ... revive me

It's the sweetest sound
When you call out loud
And your voice drowns out the rain
Like a peaceful song
Though the storm rages on ... I'm walking on the waves
