

Cirque du Soleil, Child In His Eyes

if you think,
if figure it out,
if you think its how it should be
tell me why children suffer and men wants to die.
with so much love courage, knolage and hope. we still live,love and creting in vane and the figt for freedom still the same, the same if you look and the men in a child in his eyes, boys cry wile the men wants to die.
he gives up in the future and he falls in love with a smile.

if you think,
if figure it out,
if you think its how it should be
