

Cirque du Soleil, Time Flies

Time flies
Leaving behind
Faded smiles in a photograph

Clock chime
Seconds unwind
Precious moments slipping into
The past

Time flies
Pushing forward
All we are will one day pass

Move on
But don't ignore the
Shadows in the looking glass

Old friends
Lovers and others
Don't know when I'll see you again

Time flies
Sooner or later
Our story must come to an end

But I know
As we embark on separate
Journeys
Wherever I go
You're always with me
Every ending is a new beginning

Time flies
Taking us further
From faces and places we know

Time flies
But always remember
You're with me wherever I go
