

Citizen King, Closed For The Weekend where i come from stealing's like giving of the week at the fat lace pace i race the make a robin hood living eight days out ease back disorderly conduct in a catatonic state of relax in the brass knuckle turnbuckle i drink the daydream than before what about it what can you up all night on a cloud getting even louder i drink and drink before i speak do closed for the weekend speak before developments arrested by speech and no for the weekend saturday and sunday too neighbors next door might as well lay off action noise complaints from the the bell cause i won't turn it down closed when monday comes a two-day wait with a one-room view on the freeze for a stunt turn on the green
