

City And Colour, Sam Malone

And you can try to fight this all you want
But I wont be there when you're all alone
And this new season brings with it signs of hope
You can leave me waiting by the phone

And I know there is some place I can go
Where, where no one knows my name

And I still remember the sound of your voice
All though your silence still rings so clear
Do you think that I would call just to hear you breathe?
You always knew that just one word would dry up all my tears

And I know there is,
some place I can go
where, where no one knows my name
No one knows my name
