

City High, Cats And Dogs

If you a dog let me hear ya bark it ain't my fault that the dart that hit ya hard split you apart you shoulda kept your guard tryin to play it hard last night pulled up in a black lex in the yard tokin' on a roc-roc you wanna murder me?
you got the wrong conspiracy This Ain't Kennedy! jealousy get you no where but legacy you wanna wish? you better i dream a genie!

(Robbie)

all i left her was a broken heart and a bunch of lies that i told her then i bounce before the sheets were warm see im the type to love em and leave em and for no reason i'll be out the door dont catch feelin's cuz my heart is cold see im that brotha that your mother tried to warn ya bout but you just had to try it now your cryin on your mamas couch you put your heart in the fire baby it burned up so heres a little story bout a lesson you should learn

(Ryan Chorus)

It aint my fault that im a dog i been in love before but me...
I picked the apple that was rotten to the core i put the world at her feet she kicked it in the dirt now i wont fall in love cuz i end up gettin hurt!
It aint my fault that im a dog!
i been in love before
but the trust i have in women has been thouroughly destroyed
i put the world at her feet she kicked it in the dirt now i wont fall in love cuz Im always getting hurt

Well first of all it aint my fault that the chick broke your heart if you was hurt you should have told me from the start instead of sending me the flowers all that candy and that gucci shit on the phone for hours gassin me like im some goupy bitch see ive been hurt to but that dont mean i ll hurt you never did i burn u or run you like some do now look at what we've come to its young and its stupid are u blamin all of us for ONE chick that was crooked

(claudette chorus)

It aint my fault that your a dog!
I been in love before but you.. you were the apple that was rotten to the core i put the world at your feet you kicked it in the dirt now i wont show no love cuz i'll end up getting hurt

It aint my fault that your a dog!

but the trust i have in men has been thouroughly destroyed
now i wont show no love cuz Im always getting hurt

(Robbie)

i thought you was the angel god sent to me meant to be but the memory of our love burn like a rug burn but a thug learns never put your heat in the flame be apart of the game play smart in the game but i was young back then dumb back then but nowa days how i plays not the same controlin these thangs take novacaine due to the pain so dont come cry to me lie to me these days these women just leave you busted and pennyles stuck with no benefits fuck us like benjamins suck us like guinea pigs thinkin they innocent if i let em in again ima never win again like the bulls with no jordan or pippen in so ain't no love strong enough for me to be slippin in with the booga basement love dont live here no more baby face it
