

City Sleeps, Ordinary High

Daddy's girl's kissing herself in the mirror
Supposed to be tucked into bed just fine
That was before the decision to dial my number
I said pick up the phone and call sometime
In your white room those windows are the way to the dimensional
I can show you where it goes princess

Chorus:

Look at those crazy eyes
It's Monday but this is no ordinary high
'Cause even when it's wrong it's right
It's Monday but this is no ordinary high
As we ride and ride it'll only get clearer
Daddy's girl isn't coming home tonight
But your morphine lips are gonna be a painkiller
I said this is no ordinary high
Accidental overdose and it feels like it's intentional
I can show you how it goes princess

Chorus

Daddy'll be worried
He locks up his baby dolls yeah
Daddy'll be worried
From the windows she will fall

Chorus

Ordinary high (ordinary high)
Ordinary high (ordinary high)
This is no ordinary
This is no ordinary
This is no ordinary high
