

Clan Of Xymox, She's Dangerous

It took me ages to complete
The other lines underneath
Now, they are here after all
Like the sunrise and falls
Time means nothing to me now
She'd cast a spell, and now I am bound
She's the force I always feared
Now, I'm lost for years

She's dangerous
She's dangerous

I'm crouching down on my knees
'Cause she's so hard to please
And I am all messed up now
It simply has to stop somehow
I'd let her soad up my soul
Now, I feel she is in control
There's no one to believe
I don't want her here

She's dangerous

Now, you know the truth
She knows it too

She's dangerous
She's dangerous

I met her online
She took a step back
I saw her undress
She's like a goddess

She called me honey
She called me baby
She showed me everything
And wanted to collect

Danger zone
She is in control
Danger zone
She is in control

She's dangerous
She's dangerous
She's dangerous
She's dangerous

She's dangerous

She's dangerous
