

Clarkesville, Everyone Will Have Their Day

Everybody gets their chance to shine
I know that's true
And if tomorrow only brings our just deserves
We'll still get through.

I know we'll be alright
Cue the marching drums
We'll stumble through tonight
Until the morning comes.

And everyone will have their day
Though many trying days might break
Take time before you make a change
Your time is gonna come your way.

Everybody's got someone to be
So just be true
And keep your sights fixed on the road ahead
And you'll get through.

I know you'll be ok
I'm certain you will live
To fight another day
Never to give in.

And everyone will have their day
Though many trying days might break
Take time before you make a change
Your time is gonna come your way.

So never lose faith
Situations change
Every day with wider eyes
Until you find your own design

And everyone will have their day
Though many trying days might break
Take time before you make a change
Your time is gonna come your way.
And everyone will have their day
And everyone will have their day
Everyone will.
