

Classic Case, Elegy

Help me darling, please dont leave my side Ive got nowhere to run, nowhere to hide eyelids are now I see dont let go
dont let go now

all ambition is dead
and im hanging on by a thread keep holding on every step of the way you leave me right when i want you to stay darling dont run out of breath i keep praying that this is not your last sleep now and watch over me

dont let go
dont let go now

you leave me right when i want you to stay dont leave me right when i want you to stay hold me closer tonight hold me closer to you

dont let go
dont let go now

you leave me right when i want you to stay
dont leave me right when i want you to stay please dont leave me right when i want you to stay
