

Classic Case, Goner

convicted, and i know i didn't do it most likely this will take a while depicted as a criminal influence innocently doing time
i'm a goner

each question only leads to more confusion i'm all alone here asking why now i am on the brink of execution where time stops and dies by my side now that the end is evident i will retrace all the lines that i've crossed in innocence

i'm a goner

no witness could answer to the jury the judge then sentenced me to die death is the only way of making restitution for stealing what money can't buy

now that the end is evident i will retrace all the lines that i've crossed and make amends for the faults of someone else i've said i'm innocent but i'm doomed and no one will help i feel so desperate and i swear i'm innocent but now the end is eminent
i'm a goner
