

Classic Case, Sweet Alibi

your countenance will rat you out i know below that smile that you're lying mirrors will reflect much more than appearances you can't hide

sweet alibi, sweet alibi
you can't verify
you're feeding me lies that coincide with nothing you've done
your words betray you
you're feeding me lies that coincide with nothing you have to say you're gasping to breathe the air that you have inhaled then exhaled and spat out running your mouth mirrors will reflect much more than appearances

sweet alibi
now take right back what you said to me
your words betray you
