

Claude Kelly, Always A Day Too Late

Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
I guessed theres no point saying this now
Its done and youre gone, this doesnt count
But now that youve gone away ive realised every day
I made a mistake, Youre the best thing ive ever found
But now that i want you, Youre moving on
I tried to call you but nobodys home
I didnt know this, till you went away
Im always a day too late
Oooh oooh ooh oooh oooh always a day too late
Im done i know, Waiting this long
Theres no explanation, For letting you go
And you were right all along
I missed you bad when youre gone
I finally opened my eyes and now im standing alone
And now that i want you youre moving on
I tried to call you but nobodys home
I didnt know this, Till you went away
Im always a day too late
But you ran to me, i didnt want to be bothered, but now i finally see
That youve moved onto another
Now honestly i get the reason why you left
But damn i wish i had you back and
Now that i want you
Youre moving on, I tried to call you
But nobodys home, I didnt know this
Till you went away-y-y
Im always a day too late
And now that i want you
Youre moving on
I tried to call you
But nobodys home
I didnt know this till you went away
Im always a day too late
Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh always a day too late
Oooh oooh ooh oooh ooh always a day too late
