

Claude Kelly, Hold U Tonight

There's something missin'
There in your eyes
That's all I need to Know something ain't right
Your heart just ain't with me
Baby you can't deny
That we've become perfect strangers
So I know, know it's the end
End of our love
End of a friend
But before you go
Tell me would you mind
Giving me one, one more night
Can I hold you tonight?
(Hold you tonight) [x3]
One last time
Before the fire goes out
And this love dies
Can I hold you tonight?
One last time
Can I hold you tonight?
Claimed you'd be here forever
But that's not what you meant
Some things are better left unsaid
Cause I knew this one's comin'
I had the feeling
Cause the last time we spoke, I felt your heart drifting
So I know, know it's the end
End of our love
End of a friend
But before you go
Tell me would you mind
Giving me one, one more night
Can I hold you tonight?
(Hold you tonight) [x3]
One last time
Before the fire goes out
And this love dies
Hold you tonight
One last time
Can I hold you tonight?
(And) If you ever loved me,
You'll give me these last few moments, baby
Let me hold you tonight
Hold you tonight...
One last time
Before the fire goes out
And this love dies
Hold you tonight...
Let me hold you tonight...
