

Claude Kelly, Like An Iceberg

Never been the type of woman that needed someone
Had to do things myself or they never got done
Never knew around the corner I'd meet someone
That I would be totally comfortable sharin' my love
Now I don't mind lettin' my guard down
My heart is yours now 'Cause baby now
You make me melt Like an iceberg on the sea
Baby you're doin' things to me that I never felt
You make me melt Never ever been this weak
This is all brand new to me I think I should tell you that
You make me melt You make me melt, (oh), baby
Now you should never say never
Look what's happenin' to me
'Cause I said I'll never let a man take the lead
But now I'm dependent Baby you're all I need
Wouldn't last a day or an hour without you next to me
Now I don't mind lettin' my guard down
My heart is yours now 'Cause baby now
You make me melt Like an iceberg on the sea
Baby you're doin' things to me that I never felt
You make me melt Never ever been this weak
This is all brand new to me I think I should tell you that
You make me melt You make me melt baby
Whoa oh whoa
Now I've always been the cool, independent type (Yeah)
But now I'm different when I look in your eyes
And I try to play it as cool as ice But you make me melt every time
You make me melt Like an iceberg on the sea
Baby you're doin' things to me oh that I never felt (Never felt)
You make me melt (Oh) Never ever been this weak (No)
This is all brand new to me (To me) I think I should tell you that
You make me melt (You make me melt, yeah, yeah)
You make me melt, (you make me melt), baby
(That's what you do baby) (And I lose my cool baby) (Oh) (When I'm with you baby) (Baby)
(Oh melt) (You make me melt) (Ay) (Melt) (Babe) (Melt) (Melt) (You make me melt)
