

Claude Kelly, Your Lies

Im Not Sure Im Ready To Leave
But I Dont Think Its Safe If I Stay
And The Burden Of Loving You Is Heavy For Me
Yeah (yeah)
But I Just Can't Seem To Turn And Walk Away
Cause everytime that I feel at home is when Im lookin in your eyes (your eyes)
And the only truth that Ive ever known is when youre tellin me your lies (your lies)
Now I cant tell a lie, its all a blur, not really sure, if youre a blessing or curse
And the only truth that Ive ever known is when youre tellin me your lies (your lies), and I.
Loves been a disaster for me
What started out so beautiful has turned to pain
What happened to my happily ever after
See I know that its been over for a while but I cant break away (break away)
Cause everytime that I feel at home is when Im lookin in your eyes (your eyes)
And the only truth that Ive ever known is when youre tellin me your lies (your lies)
Now I cant tell a lie, its all a blur, not really sure, if youre a blessing or curse
And the only truth that Ive ever known is when youre tellin me your lies (your lies), and I.
Got me holding on to ya
Got me confused I dont know whats real or fake
Baby now the only thing Im used ta
Everyday, everynight, all the time I hear your lies
Cause everytime that I feel at home is when Im lookin in your eyes (your eyes)
And the only truth that Ive ever known is when youre tellin me your lies (your lies)
Now I cant tell a lie, its all a blur, not really sure, if youre a blessing or curse
And the only truth that Ive ever known is when youre tellin me your lies (your lies)
