

Claude King, Juggler

He's got a heart in each hand and two in the air the juggler
A many hearts he breaks he just don't care the juggler
So beware his magic charms stay here in these arms
Safely from the harm of the juggler

I seen the hearts the he's juggled around
Not a pretty sight when he drops them to the ground
So please don't hesitate and wait till it's too late
Let me save you from the beat of the juggler
He's got a heart in each hand...
Yeah safely from the harm of the juggler
Oh safely from the harm of the juggler
