

Clay Kevin, Copelandhagin

What do you do with what they say when you've got no faith in which to pray?

It's like a circus freak side show. You won't give in to go with the flow.

What do you do when you see the signs? Where the sick heal the sick, blind lead the blind. What do you do when you need some cash? You need a lot and you need it fast? It's the tail waggin' the dog that's swingin'.

Copelandhagin.

Well the bongos I borrowed I never gave back. We'll call it even for the love you lacked. And the $100 dollars I was supposed to use to make this record I used for shoes. It's the tail waggin' the dog that's swingin'. They are just what they say. Casting demons out of doorknobs while singin'. Copelandhagin.

Just a pinch between your cheek
