

Clay Walker, Everybody Needs Love

In L.A. they love their cars, their muscles and their martini bars.
They love to toan they there Gucci their Rayban shade and eatin' sushi.

Over in Texas they love the Cowboys for the big city bankers to the plowboys.
They love their ribeyes and ropin' steers shootin' Jose Tequila and long neck beers.

Chorus:
Worlds apart for worser for better the one thing that brings us together is, everybody wants love, love, love yeah everbody wants love everybody needs love, love, love everybody needs love.

Over in Nashville they love the country eatin' biscuit and gravy on Sunday.
They love the Opry and George Jones crankin' sweet home alabama and the rollin' stones.

New York, New York big as it gets, they like the fight between the Yankees and the Mets.

Down in the south they love their football,
the Bulldogs, and Longhorns and the Tennessee Vols.

CHORUS

It makes the whole world turn round.
