

Clay Walker, If You Ever Feel Like Lovin' Me Again

(Jeff Stevens/Steve Bogard/Jerry Kilgore)

I remember when it all began

You couldn't keep your body

>From my hands

I remember nights we felt

So close

How we got so distant

I don't know

So as you plan

Your brand new life

Keep this one thing in mind

If you ever feel

Like lovin' me again

The door's wide open

Baby walk right in

I'll be waitin'

'Til the end of time

Heart and mind

Now just like back then

If you ever feel

Like needin' someone

Who will love you

Like I've always done

Girl I'll show you

Some things never end

If you ever feel

Like lovin' me again

People change

And baby so do dreams

They move along

To where the grass is green

So I won't hold you down

To what we had

Last thing I wanna do

Is make you sad

But if things don't fly your way

Girl it's never too late

If you ever feel

Like lovin' me again

The door's wide open

Baby walk right in

I'll be waitin'

'Til the end of time

Heart and mind

Now just like back then

If you ever feel

Like needin' someone

Who will live you

Like I've always done

Girl I'll show you

Some things never end

If you ever feel

Like lovin' me again
