

Clay Walker, Who Needs You Baby (I Do)

So long,
see you around-seen all I wanna see of this town I'm out of time and I'm out of tears-out of my mind and I'm outta herewho needs the heartache baby who needs the pain-who needs to hang around and take the blame-who needs a woman to make him blue-who needs ya baby

I do.

Why are you wearin' that negligeesure makes it hard-to walk away-
I gotta go- I can't take this abuse-why are you smilin'- would I lie to you?

who needs ya baby
I do.
(yeeehaaa)

you got your fingers in my hairwhisperin' in my earfillin' my head full of doubts tell me just what- you think you got-that i cant live without

who needs ya baby

who needs the heartache baby who needs the pain-
who needs ya baby
well I, I guess that'd be me

who needs the heartache baby who needs the pain-
who needs ya baby
I do.
