

Clean Bandit, Telephone Banking (feat. Love Ssega)

Hey Grace, guess what? Cool
You're teaching in Japan and I got another school
You've got another man and I've got another boo
I'm glad we moved on, I'm glad we moved on

Hey Grace, guess what? Cool
You're teaching in Japan and I'm living in a school
You've got another man and I've got another boo
I'm glad we moved on, I'm glad we moved on

Hey Grace, guess what's cool?
You're teaching your van and I'm living in a school
You got another man and I got another boo
I'm glad we moved on, I'm glad we moved on

Hey Grace, guess what? Cool
You're teaching in Japan and you got another boo
I got another man and you got another boo
I'm glad we moved on, I'm glad we moved on

I've grown, check my clothes, I wear chinos
Oh I'm such a lovely man, if you could see me now, now, now
Spent all your cash on cappuccinos
Oh, they match your mama's eyes, wish you could bring em round, round, round

I'm glad we moved on

Hey, Grace, guess what? Cool
I got some managers and some pennies for the booth
I'm simply getting down down, why not are you?
We had to move on, we had to move on

[x2]
No one understands and no one thinks it's true
I know you wanted me, cause I know I wanted you
How can we be free if one plus one is true?
We had to move on, we had to move on

I've grown, check my clothes, I wear chinos
Oh I'm such a lovely man, if you could see me now, now, now
Spent all your cash on cappuccinos
Oh, they match your mama's eyes, wish you could bring em round, round, round

[x2]
Picking up the phone bill, is it really true?
Never really called back, is it really you?
All your notifications never came through
Got to leave a message, locking up the booth

Hey Grace, guess what? Cool
You're teaching in Japan and I got another school
You've got another man and I've got another boo
I'm glad we moved on, I'm glad we moved on...

[x2]
I've grown, check my clothes, I wear chinos
Oh I'm such a lovely man, if you could see me now, now, now
Spent all your cash on cappuccinos
Oh, they match your mama's eyes, wish you could bring em round, round, round
