

Clear, Clarity

A simple picture lies within the haze today
Kept by gray uncertainty, the cloud of my complacency ways

Somewhere just beyond the darkness of this place (standing here)
You unveil Your glory, even through the melody of songs unheard
Your face reflected there, now lucid where it once was blurred

Chorus:

All around the light is changing
Shining through the fog I see
Giving me a new perspective
One of clarity

A glimmer once imagined, now revealed in truth You hold
In imminence I wait each day and watch Your mystery unfold

Somewhere just beyond the darkness of this place (standing here)
You unveil Your glory, even through the dim
I see it clear

Chorus
