

Clear, Follow The Narrow

I wanted to live like you
I wanted to follow follow
Like the bad rules, walking at you
Heels on the road.

But still I slip between
All the cracks, the world can't go On without you, watching as the pictures fall below.

Like I now

But you,
You walk out with your hand for me,
And I'd rather hold the sea.
Forgot the sign I hold my life,
Found
Living the life, your light
and I'm free
When I close my eyes
And lay upon it's
So fragile that you love it all.
Put the water in the sea of life
Live inside my soal and I'm free.

The rays were beating down, and suddenly the storm clouds
Covered up the sky and rang the picture into large.
But he was silent sleeping, tucked in a corner when they walked him up they saw their hair and the wind and rain went calm.
Like you make me come

When,
You walk out with your hand for me,
And I'd rather hold the sea.
Forgot the sign I hold my life,
Found
Living the life, your life
and I'm free
When I close my eyes
And lay upon it's
So fragile that you love it all.
Put the water in the sea of life
Live inside my soal and I'm free.

Na
Na Na

But you,
You walk out with your hand for me,
And I'd rather hold the sea.
Forgot the sign I hold my life,
Found
Living the life, your life
and I'm free
When I close my eyes
And lay upon it's
So fragile that you love it all.
Put the water in the sea of life
Live inside my soal and I'm free.
