

Cledus T. Judd, A Great Day To Be A Guy

Tune: It's A Great Day To Be Alive

i got my socks drying in the microwave hair on my back i dont plan to shave i got the house to myself while the wifes away i'll be rockin all night yeah i think i'll drink me an ice cold brew lounge in my boxers like i used to do there will be no Ally McBeall on the tube no i'll be watching the fight well it's a great day to be a guy playin cards with my buddies until sunrise you know i never thought that my neighbor would be sunbaying top less lord she sure looks good

I caught a 10 pound bass out on the lake played 18 holes with my best friend jake best balls i hit was when i stepped on a rake (OHH) well it wasn't to bright now i looked in the fridge what did i see last night's pizza staring back at me pepperoni and ancovies what a beautiful sight

butt necked in my lawn chair swattin at flies got some hotdogs on the charcoal grill don't wanna burn my weiners but i probably will that fried bologna..... and cheese macaroni tasted good this afternoon but now i'm passin some serious gas n i might have to leave the room P-E-E-U-U!

Well i might go get me a new hair-do spend a couple hours at the tanning booth might even get me a gold front tooth O aww yeah!

and it's a great day to be a guy but when my wife gets home she's gonna tan my hide i'll be hung over but a lookin good a week of reliving my batchelor hood it's a great day to be a guy but another week of this and i'll probably die i tend to party harder than i should when my wives not here to make me be good

.....Yah hoo
