

Cledus T. Judd, Lets Shoot Dove

Buddy im sick, of shooting at clay dreaming of open day how about you, yeah me too the only thing i want to do is hunt with, kill a bird or two.
go get your gun
lets shoot dove all day long, untill all our shells are gone shoot five times. then reload run like heck if the game warden shows. when the sun comes up. lets shoot dove you know faith gets mad at me. when she thinks id rather be in a field with you. siping brew. shooting anything that moves i think my sights, a little off to the right you cant hit nothing

lets shoot dove all day long untill all our shells are gone by tonigh, one things for sure. boy our shoulders will be sore i just cant get enough, lets shoot dove

point your gun towards the sky, i wanna see them feathers fly. and when the sun comes up. i just cant get enough, lets shoot dove you get one, not did you. i think i winged one
