

Cleopatra, What You Gonna Do Boy?

ooooooh, thinking about you, yea yea yea
Hey I've seen you many times
And I really wanna cry
Just to make you think about me
But I can't (can't)
To my friends I told a lie
Now I really wanna cry
Cause I'm livin' with out you
In my life
Now I'm (thinking about the day that we can share)
Let the (moments pass us by and nothing can compare)
We are (thinking about the days that we can share)
Let the (moments pass us by and nothing can compare)
oooooooh, thinking about you, yea yea yea
Oh I feel I haven't a friend in the world
Maybe if I was your girl
I'd be happier while I'm
By your side (isn't it snide)
I guess it may take quite a while
Why not look at me and smile
There must be a chance for you
To be mine
Now I'm (thinking about the day that we can share)
Let the (moments pass us by and nothing can compare)
We are (thinking about the days that we can share)
Let the (moments pass us by and nothing can compare)
oooooooh, thinking about you, yea yea yea
(I'm goin' round and round but I don't feel dizzy)
Cause I'm (I) Oh I (oh I)
I'm crazy (crazy) crazy over you
I am . . . . . now I'm (thinking about the day that we can share)
let the (moments pass us by and nothing can compare)
we are (thinking about the day that we can share)
let the (moments pass us by and nothing can compare)
(Thinking of, thinking of, about you)
(Thinking of, thinking of, about you)
(Thinking of, thinking of, about you)
(Thinking of, thinking of, about you)
I'm goin' round and round, but I don't feel dizzy
Cause I'm (I) oh I (oh I)
I'm crazy (crazy) crazy over you
I am .....
Thinking about the days that we can share
Moments pass us by and nothing can compare
Thinking about the days that we can share
Moments pass us by and nothing can compare
