

Client, Someone To Hurt

I've been down to the city, I've been up all night
I've been looking for answers
Searching for questions
All I ever get is you
I'm beaten up with self pity
And I don't want to fight
I'm still looking for reasons
But all I ever get is you

I need someone to hurt, I need someone to hurt
I need someone to hurt, it can't get any worse
