

Cliff Richard, Broken Doll

Ooh she's just a broken doll - she ain't no
Use at all - since you've been gone

Ooh she's just a broken toy - she's no ones
Pride and joy - look what you've done

You had her on a string
You made a fool of her
And that's an awful thing
She thought she'd paid her fare
Now you've gone and you just don't care

You can't wind her up - she's a broken doll
You can't wind her up - although the key fits
You can't wind her up - she's a broken doll
Someone's thrown away all the pieces

Now you've played your wicked game
Don't you feel no shame
Look what you've done!

Now she's just a broken girl while you're
All around the world - having your fun

She had you in her heart
You made a fool of her right from the very start
She thought she'd paid her fare
Now you've gone and you just don't care

You can't wind her up - she's a broken doll
You can't wind her up - although the key fits
You can't wind her up - she's a broken doll
Someone's thrown away all the pieces

Ooh she's just a broken toy - she's no ones
Pride and joy - look what you've done

You had her on a string
You made a fool of her
And that's an awful thing
She thought she'd paid her fare
Now you've gone and you just don't care
