

Cliff Richard, Locked Inside Your Prison

Your love is like a prison wall
And it's getting higher
I get so far and then I fall
I can't get through the wire

Oh oh oh I'm locked inside your prison
Oh oh oh I'm locked inside your prison

It's as though I'm doing time
And you won't free me
Let the punishment befit the crime
And say you need me

Oh oh oh I'm locked inside your prison
Oh oh oh I'm locked inside your prison

Save me save me can't you see I'm innocent

Turn the key that will set me free
Please let it end oh let it end

Oh oh oh I'm locked inside your prison
Oh oh oh I'm locked inside your prison

Save me save me can't you see I'm innocent
Turn the key that will set me free
Please let it end won't you let it end

I'll dig a tunnel to your heart
Let me remind you
Even gonna tear the walls apart
Until I find you

Oh oh oh I'm locked inside your prison
Oh oh oh I'm locked inside your prison
