

Cliff Richard, She Make Me Feel Like A Man

She looks at me
Like I'm the only one
Our hearts meet
She moves into mine
I lie there at night
Just hearing her breathing
I taste every breath she takes
I'm her hero she says
But I'm not sure why

She makes me feel like a man
She puts a little bit of heaven in me
I'm so lucky to see her sweet face when I wake
She makes me feel like a man

I can't recall that she
Asked me for anything
As long as I wake by her side
When I hold her real close
Her heart's like racing train
Racing with the beat of mine
But it don't mean a thing
Unless she's with me

She makes me feel like a man
She puts a little bit of heaven in me
I'm so lucky to see her sweet face when I wake
She makes me feel like a man
