

Cliff Richard, You've Got To Give Me All Your Lovin'

You've got to give me all your lovin'
'Cause a man ain't nothin' without woman's love
You've got to give me all your lovin'
Give it all to me 'cause a part just ain't enough

Like a flower needs the rain to grow
Like a winter needs a fall of snow
You're the one I need
To satisfy my soul
It's a lonely feelin' late at night
Without you here to put the feelin' right
You're the one I need
Your love is out of sight

You've got to give me all your lovin'
'Cause a man ain't nothin' without woman's love
You've got to give me all your lovin'
Give it all to me 'cause a part just ain't enough

You're the only woman on my mind
I've been waitin' such a long long time
If you stay by me who knows what you might find
There's a certain magic in your smile
And it's plain to see you've sure got style
Just to be with you I'd walk a thousand miles

You've got to give me all your lovin'
'Cause a man ain't nothin' without woman's love
You've got to give me all your lovin'
Give it all to me 'cause a part just ain't enough
