

Clifford T. Ward, Heaven Lend A Hand

Well I marvel at the at the things she do

She's got magic in her voice an' her dancin' shoes

Well all we need are the breaks and boy

Heaven won't you lend a hand?

She'll show you now what she can do

You know she's my angel she could be yours too, 'n'

She won't falter an' she won't stop

She want's nothing but the best

She's going to the top.

I'm crazy about the things she say

She say's "I'm going to love you to the end of my days"

Well all we need are the breaks and boy

Heaven won't you lend a hand?

She sings and dances

She plays piano

She acts the fool just like a star and

She knows about it

She's sold about it

She's gonna to be the new Judy Garland.

I'm crazy about the things she do

She got magic in her voice an' her dancing shoes

Well all we need are the breaks and boy

Heaven won't you lend a hand?

INSTRUMENTAL

She sings and dances

She plays piano

She acts the fool just like a star and
She knows about it
She's sold about it
She's gonna to be the new Judy Garland.

I'm crazy about the things she do
She got magic in her voice an' her dancing shoes
Well all we need are the breaks and boy
Heaven won't you lend a hand?
