

Clifford T. Ward, Here's Till Then

You can stay away forever and a day
But I&#039;ll keep on loving you till then
You can change your mind
And come home to find
That I&#039;m here to care for you again
So here&#039;s till then.

You can say &quot;too bad&quot;
You can even be glad
But you can&#039;t say you never cared
You can close your mind
You can be so unkind
But you can&#039;t spoil what we once shared
You can&#039;t spoil the love that we once shared.

You can stay away forever and a day
But I&#039;ll keep on loving you till then
You can change your mind
You can come home to find
That I&#039;m here to care for you again
I&#039;ll be here to care for you again
