

Clifford T. Ward, Lost In The Flow Of Your Love

There's a mist coming down tonight

And it seems to be everywhere

All I hear are the waves tonight

And your heart beating everywhere

I don't wanna share you.

Try to stay calm

Try not to care

You can do me no harm

'Cause I know how to fare

I don't wanna be jealous

I just wanna be free

But I'm caught in the ebb of your love.

There's a strange atmosphere tonight

Everythin' would seem endable

Still the waves crashing round tonight

Nothing left would seem mendable

And I'm expendable.

Try to stay calm

Try not to care

You can do me no harm

'Cause I've learnt how to fare

I don't wanna be jealous

I don't wanna be free

Let me stay in the flow of your love.

INSTRUMENTAL

Try to stay calm

Try not to care

You can do me no harm
'Cause I know how to fare
I don't wanna be jealous
I just wanna be free
But I'm caught in the ebb of your love
Let me stay in the flow of your love.
