

Clifford T. Ward, Someone I Know

Someone I know is treating you bad

Someone who ought to know better than that

I thought I knew him well

But you can never tell

We don't get on so well

After all.

Someone I know is making you cry

Someone who should have been eager to try

But he grew worldly wise

Then he learned how to lie

We don't see eye-to-eye

Any more.

INSTRUMENTAL

Someone I know is setting you free

Someone who should have been happy to be

With someone like you

But he couldn't be true

Someone I thought I knew

Someone called---me.
